

CURRICULUM VITAE

KATHRYN I. KENNELLY, RN, MSN, C-FNP

OBJECTIVE: My objective is to secure a full-time position as a Family Nurse Practitioner. My goal is to provide exceptional and professional care to patients ranging from newborn to geriatrics.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Certified Family Nurse Practitioner:

R.N., MSN, CFNP – (June 27, 2005-present) Dr. Constantine K. Saadeh, Amarillo, TX, 353-7000

- Provide specialty care to allergy, asthma, rheumatology patients in ambulatory clinic.

Independent Contractor – (Oct. 2004-July 5, 2005) Dr. Thomas A. Sames, MD, PA, 570-5493

- Provide Primary Care to special needs geriatrics patients in 7 different Long Term Care and Rehabilitation Nursing Home facilities.

Clinical Instructor:

West Texas A&M University

- Clinical Instructor for BSN program: Taught BSN students in their OB/GYN clinicals for Spring and Fall 2004. Paid from a special grant through NWTTHS education fund.

Nurse Clinician:

AAHS Special Needs Pediatrics – Dr. Habersang, 2001-2003, 468-4300

- Provided all the functions of a Nurse Practitioner and Primary Care Provider, while obtaining my MSN degree, in ambulatory setting and in house hospital rounds. Providing primary care as well as patient education, counseling and physical assessment to critically ill and chronic, special needs pediatric patients and their families
- Collaborate with healthcare team to provide for special needs pediatric patients both in the clinic and hospital.

Registered Nurse:

NWTHS, NICU, PICU, Pediatrics 1998-2003, 354-1588

- Provided primary care to critically ill neonates and pediatric patients in a hospital setting
- Charge nurse-delegated appropriate tasks to RNs, LVNs, Nurse Techs
- Level III NICU for 10 years
- 3 yrs Pediatric Intensive Care Unit
- Proven leadership skills and function as a relief charge nurse in all 3 areas, managing, developing and motivating staff to achieve our objectives.

Promina Cobb Hospital. 1997-1998. Pat Beckett NICU

- Level III NICU
- Provided primary care to acute critically ill neonates

ASAP Nursing Agency. 1997-1998. (770) 428-1515

- NICU Level III
- Per Diem – Assignments in Atlanta, Georgia, and surrounding area hospitals.

Northwest Texas Healthcare Systems, 1992-1997, (806) 354-1588

- NICU Level III
- Weekend Day Charge Nurse (1993-1997)
 - Coordinating the daily functions of a twenty-one bed unit (average census twenty-five)
 - Staff/patient assignments, serving as an inter-departmental liaison,
 - Presenting staff in-services,
 - Arranging and providing primary care to neonates twenty-two weeks to term,
 - Computerized ordering of all alb work and procedures,
 - Attending al high-risk deliveries
- Neonatal Transport Team Member (1995-1997)
 - Medivac I Helicopter Neonatal Transports. The neonatal team consisted of one R.N. and one Respiratory

Therapist serving a three-state region with a one hundred fifty-mile radius

- Autonomous UAC/UVC, PCVC insertions, needle aspiration for pneumos, assisting with intubations and chest tube insertions and the administering of all medical therapy required
- Created working Daily Kardex Form and Daily Flow Sheets for NICU. Helped create and served as chairperson of the self-directed Staffing Committee.
- Created neonatal parent support group “Baby Steps”.
- Served on hospital wide Policy Review Committee.

Olsten – Kimberly Quality Care Home Health. 1994-1995 Pediatric:

- Provided home health care IV Infusion Therapy to pediatric patients, newborn to twenty-one years

High Plains Baptist Hospital. 1988-1992 Amarillo, Texas, 212-2000

- Weekday Charge Nurse (1991-1992) Responsible for assigning patients to staff and providing primary care to adult medical, cardiac, respiratory, ENT patients and pediatric patients.

Nurse Tech I-III High Plains Baptist Hospital (1988-1991)

- Floated hospital-wide assisting RNs with primary patient care. Units including: Adult surgical, medical, respiratory, cardiac, orthopedics, neuro, ophthalmology, oncology, OB/GYN, and newborn nursery.

Education: American Academy of Nurse Practitioner Certification Program 2004
Masters of Science in Nursing, FNP, TWA&MU Dec 2003
Bachelor of Science in Nursing West Texas A&M University, 1991
High School Diploma, Amarillo High School, May 1984

Achievements: National Collegiate Nursing Award 1991
Top Scholars of America 1991

Certifications: Neonatal Advanced Life Support – NRP 1992-present
Percutaneous Venous Catheterization – Neonatal 1995-present
Pediatric Advanced Life Support – 1991-present
Basic Cardiac Life Support – 1998-present

References: Available upon request.

Signature

Date